9. Code of Conduct for Members, including Junior Members

Southwell Squash Club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The Club believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the Club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, Members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with the Club's Welfare Officer or other Officers.

As a member of Southwell Squash Club you are expected to abide by the club rules.

Members must:

- Treat everyone equally regardless of age, ability, gender, race, religion, ethnic origin, social status or sexual orientation and accept that everyone has the right to be protected from abuse
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person within the context of the sport
- Know and abide by the rules of the game
- Accept the referees decision without question or complaint (let the captain or coach ask the necessary questions)
- Avoid violence and rough play
- Help injured players and opponents where appropriate or summon assistance
- Keep to agreed timings for training and competitions or inform their coach or team manager if they are going to be late
- Players must wear suitable kit, including approved eyewear for junior players
- Use social media appropriately: members must not post comments that are or may-be conceived as Offensive, Insulting, Abusive, Threatening, Racist, Discriminatory or any other reference that may cause offence or harm to others
- Junior members may only get changed at Southwell Leisure Centre in the disabled toilet or in the general changing room if accompanied by their parent/carer
- Players must pay any fees for training or events promptly
- Members are not allowed to smoke on club premises or whilst representing the club at competitions.
- Junior members are not allowed to consume alcohol or drugs of any kind on the club premises or whilst representing the club
- Respect the sport

10. Code of Conduct for Parents/Carers/Guardians

The Parents Code of Conduct applies to all parents at any squash match or training session at every level within the game. If the code is breached and reported, all complaints and allegations will be acted upon accordingly. Parents will:

- Abide by the rules and regulations of the club or venue
- Focus on the child's efforts and enjoyment rather than winning or losing
- Encourage young people to play and not force them
- Provide positive verbal feedback in both training and matches
- Encourage players to participate within the rules and regulations of the game
- Applaud good performance and efforts from all individuals and teams
- Congratulate all participants on their performance regardless of the game's outcome
- Leave the coach to communicate with individual players during matches *parents should not enter the court of play
- Respect the decisions of officials and teach children to do the same
- Respect referees, officials, coaches, players and spectators
- Inform the team coach or manager of any injury, health or welfare issue that it is felt appropriate for them to know
- Remember that children participate in sport for their enjoyment, not their parents
- Treat everyone equally regardless of age, ability, gender, race, religion, ethnic origin, social status or sexual orientation and accept that everybody has the right to be protected from abuse
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person within the context of the sport
- Report any concerns in relation to a young person, follow reporting procedures laid down by England Squash
- A parent should not condone any form of discrimination or allow it to go unchallenged
